Position Type:	Full Time (37.5 hours per week)
Hours:	Monday – Friday
Program:	Housing Services

Miskanawah is an Indigenous agency grounded in Wahkotiwin, supporting children, youth, and families to strengthen their circles of self, family, community, and culture.

We are seeking a Housing Services Manager to provide leadership to our two housing programs in Calgary. This role ensures culturally grounded, high-quality services while navigating Provincial and Federal housing systems while strengthening outcomes for Indigenous families.

Key Highlights:

- Salary: $85,000 – $90,000
- Oversees ~$2M budget (multiple funders)
- Leads team of up to 10 staff (2 direct reports)

What You'll Do:

- Lead and support a high-performing, relational team
- Oversee housing programs and service delivery
- Navigate housing systems and build partnerships
- Align programs with municipal, provincial, and federal strategies
- Ensure culturally grounded, trauma-informed practice

What You Bring:

- 5+ years leadership experience in human services
- Strong knowledge of housing/homelessness sector
- Experience working with Indigenous communities
- Bachelor's Degree
- Strengths-based, relational leadership approach

This role requires a leader who can balance strategy and frontline realities— supporting staff, navigating systems, and ensuring programs remain responsive and culturally grounded.
